Blessings

In the Gospels, Jesus' heart is moved with pity for the crowds (see Mt 9:36) and He tells us that He is gentle and humble of heart (Mt 11:29).

The Sacred Heart of Jesus that began beating in the womb of the Blessed Virgin more than 2,000 years ago still beats today in the glorified humanity of the Risen Christ. And it will pulsate forever, pumping out the grace, mercy and life of God to all of humanity.

In the Heart of the Lord, we experience the overwhelming mercy of God and His infinite desire to be in relationship with us.

St. Margaret Mary Alacoque described her experience of the Lord:

"My divine Heart is so passionately fond of the human race and of you, in particular, that it cannot keep back the pent-up flames of its burning charity any longer.

They must burst out through you and reveal my Heart to the world, so as to enrich mankind with my precious treasures."

Following this revelation, Jesus united her heart with His in a fusion of mystical love and joy.

Mary said, "God wishes to establish devotion to my Immaculate Heart in the world." This speaks volumes because Mary doesn't direct the attention to herself; rather, it is God who does so.

If we want to foster a devotion to the Heart of Mary, the first place we must turn is the pages of sacred Scripture. Devotion to the Immaculate Heart (and the Sorrowful Heart) wouldn't develop for centuries, but we can say that it is truly a biblical devotion.
